

— TONY WARD —

Commencing work for a family-owned real estate business at the age of 18 and quickly progressing to principal by 21, Tony has over 30 years experience in sales and auctioneering.

In addition to his expansive real estate experience Tony has been a McDonald's Franchisee for over 16 years leading to a deep understanding of not only business transactions but the importance of customer satisfaction.

Formally trained at the Real Estate Institute of SA's Auction School - Tony has called in excess of 1000 auctions across both Adelaide and Queensland.

On auction day Tony brings a natural calm to a traditionally emotional environment, effortlessly providing confidence to both buyer and seller.

Tony is now an integral member of The Auction Group, bringing a wealth of experience and a desire to greatly impact our partner offices.
