

— MICHAEL O'BRIEN —

Forging a stellar career spanning 16 years, Michael O'Brien brings to The Auction Group a depth of real estate knowledge that can only be obtained from front line agency.

A principal and auctioneer of many years, Michael's 'know how' approach greatly benefits partner agencies.

Michael's approach is simple - educate buyers, inform sellers around the auction process and reduce the associated unnecessary stress.

Subscribing to the belief that being an auctioneer isn't just about being a quality caller, Michael believes it's about skillfully negotiating to achieve the best result for his sellers.
