

— CRAIG CURRIE —

Understanding the importance of each auction for all parties, Craig is renowned as a skilled negotiator and maintains an open and constant communication channel with his clients, their seller and buyers.

“My drive is to deliver a service based on integrity and results. I am well known for great customer service, consistent communication, strong attention to detail and ensuring a positive experience for all parties in a transaction.”

His wealth of knowledge brings not only a professional approach but a fresh outlook. A fully licensed auctioneer, Craig has also had plenty of experience in auctioning rural, residential and commercial properties, clearing sales and chattel auctions. His 10 years experience as an auctioneer ensures that his client’s and their seller’s greatest asset is complemented with an upbeat and professional auction call in such a way that ultimately achieves the best possible result on the day.

Craig brings an insightful and innovative approach to achieving exceptional outcomes for his clients, agents and sellers alike. Coupling his formidable work ethic along with his ability to deliver consistently strong results, has quickly made him one of Townsville’s most trusted auctioneers today.
